Definitions

wink (verb)	to open and close one eye quickly; an action that usually shows affection or indicates a secret; blink
freckles (noun)	brown spots on the skin, usually in sun exposed areas; mole magnificent (adjective)	beautiful, extravagant, spectacular, impressive, excellent accompany (verb)	to take, go with or escort someone somewhere
trailing (verb)	to follow something or someone using something, such as smell or marks, that was left behind bustling (verb)	to move in a quick way; dash, hurry, scurry, hustle
cautious (adjective)	careful to stay away from bad things; watchful, attentive

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Worksheet 1:

Fill in the blanks with the proper word

wink	freckles	magnificent	accompany	trailing	bustling	cautious

1. I love the look of _____ on people's cheeks because I think it makes their eyes stand out.
2. "Just _____ at me to signal that it is clear for me to come into the room," Jane told Jack.
3. I would appreciate if someone could _____ me to the ball tomorrow evening.
4. We are _____ behind, following the deer using his footprints in the mud.
5. "Please be _____, kids, especially around the ledge," the teacher warned.
6. The view of the mountain was absolutely _____ and stunning.
7. My aunts are _____ around the house to finish cleaning before my friends come over.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Worksheet 2:

Fill in the blanks with the proper word

wink	freckles	magnificent	accompany	trailing	bustling	cautious

1. Janice asked John to _____ her to the Friday night dance so she would not have to go without a date.
2. Every customer in the store was _____ around trying to find the best deals on Christmas toys.
3. The boy scout group was _____ some mysterious creature by following prints in the snow.
4. The sign read, 'Be _____," but we did not know what it was referring to since the area seemed safe.
5. I always see my mom and dad _____ at each other, and I think it's to show their love.
6. When Kate spends too much time in the sun, the _____ on her face really pop out.
7. The play we saw on broadway was _____ and full of excitement and wonder.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Worksheet 4:

Choose the word from the choices given that best defines the bolded part of the sentence.

1. Everyone here needs to be extra attentive of all of their surroundings.
   a. cautious b. wink c. accompany
2. Why does everyone seem to be hurrying around the holiday times?
   a. wink b. magnificent c. bustling
3. We were following the little boy who was leaving dropped pieces of paper behind him as he wandered around.
   a. freckle b. bustling c. trailing
4. You do not have to have someone escort you to every dance that the school puts on.
   a. wink b. accompany c. cautious
5. The view from the top of the Eiffel tower was so spectacular that I could not believe my own eyes.
   a. bustling b. magnificent c. cautious
6. Is that a mole on your neck from spending too much time outside in the hot sun?
   a. freckles b. trailing c. accompany
7. "How do you blink like that?" Asked the little boy. "You did so with only one eye!"
   a. wink b. freckles c. magnificent

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Worksheet 5:

Fill in the blanks with the proper word from the word bank. Some words are repeated for better understanding.

wink	freckles	magnificent	accompany	trailing	bustling
cautious	winks	freckle	accompanied	trailed	bustle

1. I love it when my boyfriend _____ at me because I know it is him showing me affection.
2. The police officer _____ her to her car because she did not want to walk all that way alone at night.
3. We think the deers were _____ us because everytime we looked behind us they were there.
4. We always try to avoid any shopping center right before Christmas because of all of the people _____.
5. Can someone please teach me how to _____? Every time I try, I close both of my eyes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. It was so embarrassing: my brother had to _____ me to my best friend's birthday party.

7. Sherley has one single _____ at the tip of her nose, but there are no other spots anywhere on her body.

8. "What a _____ story," Helen said aloud after she finished a new adventure story. "That was amazing."

9. I wonder how many people prefer _____ versus having not spots.

10. You kids need to _____ if we are going to leave and make it to the movie on time.

11. We were helmets while we ride bicycles because it is the _____ thing to do.

12. The team _____ behind the other team so they could cheat and make it to the end faster than them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS