The mysterious egg

1 Jake, Molly and Beth are at the zoo today.

I love the zoo! We can see giraffes, elephants and monkeys.

Come on!

2 Inside the zoo, Beth sees something on the ground.

Look! What's this?

I think it's an egg.

Listen! There's something inside it.

3 The egg hatches and a strange animal appears.

Wow! What is it?

I don't know. Let's find out.

Let's help it find its mum.

4

Look. Here's a sign. Has it got a long neck?

No, it hasn't.

Giraffe
• long neck
• eats leaves

It isn't a giraffe. Come on. Let's go this way.

The comic strip is divided into four panels. Panel 1 shows three children, Jake, Molly, and Beth, walking towards a zoo entrance. A speech bubble from one of them says, 'I love the zoo! We can see giraffes, elephants and monkeys.' Another says, 'Come on!'. The word 'ZOO' is written on the building. Panel 2 shows the children in a grassy area. Beth is pointing to a white egg on the ground. One child says, 'Look! What's this?' and another replies, 'I think it's an egg.' A third child says, 'Listen! There's something inside it.' Panel 3 is a circular panel showing the egg hatching into a small, grey, four-legged animal. The children are looking at it with curiosity. One says, 'Wow! What is it?' and another replies, 'I don't know. Let's find out.' A third child says, 'Let's help it find its mum.' Panel 4 shows the children looking at a sign for giraffes. The sign says 'Giraffe • long neck • eats leaves'. One child asks, 'Look. Here's a sign. Has it got a long neck?' and another replies, 'No, it hasn't.' A third child says, 'It isn't a giraffe. Come on. Let's go this way.'
