

Name: _____

Date: ____/____/____

COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES (ADJECTIVES)

TYPE	DEFINITION	COMPARATIVE	SUPERLATIVE	EXAMPLE
ADJECTIVE	Describes a quality or characteristic of a noun.	Taller	The tallest	The giraffe is tall.
COMPARATIVE	Used to compare two things or people.	Taller than	The tallest	The giraffe is taller than the elephant.
SUPERLATIVE	Used to compare three or more things or people.	The tallest	The tallest	The giraffe is the tallest animal in the zoo.

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the adjective in either the comparative or superlative form, relating to familiar situations:

- The pizza from that restaurant is _____ (good) than the one from the other place we tried.
- This is _____ (interesting) book I have ever read; I couldn't put it down.
- She is _____ (tall) girl in her class; everyone looks up to her.
- That test was _____ (hard) one I've ever taken; I studied for days!
- This year's summer camp was _____ (fun) than last year's.

Rewrite the sentences using the comparative or superlative form of the adjective in contexts familiar to young learners:

1. The roller coaster is scary.

- Comparative: The haunted house is _____ than the roller coaster.
- Superlative: It's the _____ ride in the amusement park.

2. This game is easy.

- Comparative: That game is _____ than this one.
- Superlative: It's the _____ game I've played all week.

3. That movie was boring.

- Comparative: This one is _____ than that one.
- Superlative: It's the _____ movie I've seen this month.