

1. Complete the table by linking the part to its function in the ear.

Part of ear	Function
Auditory Nerve
Cochlea
Ear drum
Pinna
Auditory Canal
Ossicles

Jobs to choose from:

- To amplify the sound vibration and pass it to the cochlea.
- To guide sound waves to the ear.
- To make an electrical signal when the liquid and tiny hairs move.
- It vibrates when a sound wave hits it and passes the vibration to the ossicles.

- To pass the electrical signal to the brain.
- It guides sound waves to the eardrum.