Katy

Hi everyone! I'm Katy. I'm here studying with you for . I was born in New York and I go to school there. My mom and dad are in London because my dad travels a lot with his work. So, I'm here too! I England a lot. When I arrived I thought London was . You've got a lot of really old buildings and the roads aren't very big. My mom and dad took me to some different places – like Hyde Park and Oxford Street. I did some . Now, I think London's cool! We're staying in a small – I think you say 'flat'. It's very small. I've got a with my sister – yuk! I go swimming and I saw a pop concert at a big place – the O2 Arena? Wow! That's big. Now I don't want to go home. It's good to be in this school. I know it's only but I hope we can all be friends.

PHOTOCOPIABLE © Oxford University Press 2016

LIVEWORKSHEETS