II. Read the passage and write T(True) or F (False) in the following sentences.

Studies have proven that school club activities are important to both the physical and mental development of children. In sports clubs, kids play sports regularly, and under the guidance of their coaches they improve their physical health. Moreover, children mix with friends from different classes in a new environment where they can learn, share, and appreciate each other. Also, when they work with new friends in a club, they will become more confident and independent. Furthermore, when children work together in a team to deal with a problem or to do tasks, they have to work together to think about what they should do to complete the task. They, therefore, can learn research and leadership skills. Many kids also find good role models in clubs, such as coaches or group leaders.
