

1

Choose the correct pronoun and fill in the blanks:

hers - us - her - his - him - theirs - it

Sarah is a talented artist. _____ paintings have been exhibited in several galleries.

_____ city is big and it contains a lot of houses.

Are these books yours, or are they _____? She is asking.

The cat is sleeping on the windowsill. _____ looks very comfortable.

Can you pass the message to Scott? Tell _____ we'll meet at the cafe.

Tell them to come back . The lost backpack on the chair is _____.

Please save a seat for _____ at the concert. We will be late.

2

Complete the sentences using the correct pronoun:

mine - his - yours - ours - me

Call Jack, _____ car is not working.

The keys are on the table; They are _____, can you get it so I can keep it?

The concert tickets are _____. We won them in a contest.

You and _____ will meet him at the library. So we can be all together.

This book is not _____, give it back to her.