PART 3

1. Fill in the gaps with one word that is suitable for all three sentences.

1. _____

I try and keep a …… face, but I can't help grinning at myself.
Just be …… with her and tell her how you feel.
The bullet went …… through him.

2. _____

The story was given a …… profile in today's papers.
Illness of any sort can leave you feeling ……
Most people have an extremely …… opinion of the British tabloid newspapers.

3. _____

She found his …… towards her distinctly hostile.
It was barbarous to treat prisoners in that ……
It's a satire somewhat in the …… of Dickens.

4. _____

The machine will …… out in no time under rough usage.
It's going to be a black-tie dinner, so come in formal ……
All parts of the aircraft are closely scrutinised for signs of …… or damage.

5. _____

He had a …… temper and was prone to outbursts of violence.
Strawberries are in …… supply at the moment.
We're running …… of coffee again.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. KEY WORD TRANSFORMATION.

Use max of 5 words for each gap.

1. It's highly unlikely that she will be given a bonus this year.

OF

There's little _____ a bonus this year.

2. Making a deal with them was John's idea.

PUT

It was John who _____ making a deal with them.

3. Everyone thinks they're living under strict protection.

TO

They are thought _____ under strict protection.

4. She doesn't agree with the company policy.

WAY

In _____ with the company policy.

5. I don't want to be kept in this place any more.

OBJECT

I _____ in this place any more.

6. He didn't seem ill although he was terminally ill.

SHOW

Although he was terminally ill he _____ the disease.

7. Without that heart transplant, he would never have lived.

IT

Had _____ that heart transplant, he would never have lived.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS