Congratulation letter

New Message

To 2Samuel@gmail.com

Subject Woohoo! You Did It!

Hey Sam,

Just wanted to drop you a quick note to say massive congratulations on graduating! I knew you had it in you, but seeing you rock that cap and gown is a whole new level of awesome.

Your dedication and hard work have totally paid off, and I can't wait to see where your awesome journey takes you next.

Let's catch up soon and celebrate properly. Until then, here's to you and your amazing achievement!

Cheers,
Gabriel

Send

Read the Gabriel's letters and answer the questions:

What is the purpose of Gabriel's letter to Sam?
a) Offering condolences
b) Wishing for a quick recovery
c) Congratulating Sam on graduating
d) Inviting Sam to an event

How does Gabriel feel about Sam's graduation?
a) Indifferent
b) Excited and impressed
c) Concerned
d) Disappointed

What does Gabriel suggest doing with Sam?
a) Studying together
b) Going on a vacation
c) Celebrating properly and catching up soon
d) Discussing future plans

Read and recognize the structure of Sam's answer:

New Message

To Ggbriel7474@gmail.com

Subject We have to celebrate!

Hey Gabriel,

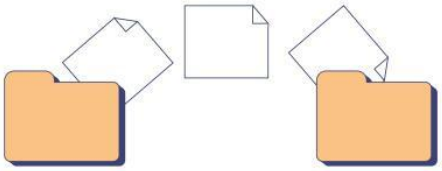

Thanks for the awesome message! Your words mean a lot, and I'm stoked to have friends like you cheering me on. Graduation day was a blast, and rocking that cap and gown did make me feel on top of the world.

I'm all in for a celebration! Let's definitely plan to catch up soon and raise a toast to the next adventure. Your support has been a game-changer, and I can't wait to share the post-grad life with you.

Greetings to amazing friends like you!

Best,
Sam

Send

Read again to find phrases you can use.....

when you feel excited and amazing

_____

to close the letters

_____

in imformal way to say wear (a garment)

_____

to give comfort or support

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS