

1. Artwork by famous painters like Picasso sells for millions or euros at [begging / waiting / peer / auction].
2. The interviewer [figured / honed in on / fired up / stood out] one aspect of the star's life and wouldn't let her talk about anything else.
3. Jack had a difficult life, but he always puts the [sensitive / well-being / lifestyle / superior] of his son first.
4. We managed to [get round / order about / fire up / buy off] his mother by telling her we'd be back by 10 p.m.
5. I didn't want to go to Beyonce's show, but Jane talked me [out of / in / into / out] it and it was amazing.
6. Don't [push / fire / order / buy] your little brother about. Be nice to him!
7. Everybody [deceived / bribed / figured / cheered] loudly when the award for Best Actress was presented.
8. Jane is my [psychiatrist / auction / peer / superior], so I can't tell her how to do her job.
9. The speakers at the demonstration fired everybody [on / off / at / up] and the protest march was very successful.
10. His application for a building permit was approved once he had [auctioned / deceived / bribed / dishonest] some local officials.