The Enemy, Part VI.

Pick the Right Answer

1

What happened on the seventh day after the servants left?

a Hana paid off the servants and thanked them.

b
Hana cried because of the children.

c Hana sent a messenger to the door.

d
Hana didn't clean the house and prepare food.

2

Why did Hana not cry when the servants left?

a
She was in shock.

b
She didn't like the servants.

c
She wanted to show her pride as a mistress.

d
She was busy with the children.

3

What did Hana do after she brought morning food to the prisoner?

a
She went back to Sadao and asked him a question.

b
She went to her own house.

c
She sent for Yumi because the baby was crying.

d
She cried because she missed the servants.

4

Why did Sadao tell the prisoner to stay up for only five minutes?

a
He wanted the prisoner to start recovering but knew that he was still weak.

b
He wanted to test the prisoner's strength.

c
He wanted to see the prisoner's reaction.

d
He wanted to punish the prisoner.

5

Who was Hana surprised to see in the afternoon?

a
A messenger in official uniform.

b
The servants returning.

c
The children playing in the garden.

d
Sadao reading a book.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6

Why did the messenger come to Sadao's house?

a
To arrest Sadao.

b
To invite Sadao to the palace.

c
To deliver a message from the old General.

d
To ask for medical advice.

7

How did Hana feel when the messenger arrived?

a Relieved.

b Worried.

c Excited.

d Indifferent.

8

Why did Sadao want to get rid of the prisoner?

a
Because the prisoner was dangerous.

b
Because the prisoner reminded him of his past.

c
Because the General asked him to.

d
Because he wanted to protect Hana.

9

What did the General say about Japanese surgeons?

a
They are ruthless.

b
They are sentimental.

c
They are not trustworthy.

d
They are highly skilled.

10

What did the General propose to Sadao?

a
To have the prisoner secretly killed.

b
To have the prisoner released.

c
To have the prisoner interrogated.

d
To have the prisoner operated on again.

LIVEWORKSHEETS