

THE LONG AND WINDING ROAD

The long and winding                      that leads to your door
Will never                      , I've seen that road before
It always                      me here Lead me to your

The wild and windy                      that the rain washed away
Has left a                      of tears, crying for the day
Why leave me                      here?
Let me know the

Many times I've been                      ,
and many times I've Anyway, you'll                      know the                      ways I've tried

And still they lead me                      to the long and winding road
You                      me standing here a long, long time ago
Don't                      me waiting here
                    me to your door

But                      they lead me back to the long and winding road
You left me standing here a long, long time
Don't                      me waiting here
Lead me to your door
Lead me to your door
