PART 1 - Listen and match the halves:

A. I was lookin' out on dry land,
B. That's when I knew, no doubt,
C. No more people to hold me down,
All the walls will crumble down

____ I had hit bottom and I was getting out ____ fight the ghost in my hometown ____ no intentions, I didn't have no plans

PART 2 - Listen and complete with a linking word (and, before, if, so, when, whereas):

_____ I called up my man Michael, dropped everything and oh
We don't need directions, to do what we need done _____ we learn to travel lightly, we learn to travel strong _____ we never lost the fire, we'd win _____ too long
No you don't look back and you can't delay, you've got to sail away

[CHORUS]
Sail away, we may not ever be coming back this way
Sail away, another place to be, another day
Sail away, sail away

And we're too controlled for laughing, _____ nothing could go wrong _____ we met with two more strangers that were friends before too long
And we switched them together, could take on the whole world
No regrets, no longing, got things the way they were

No you don't look back and you can't delay,
Got to sail away

[REPEAT CHORUS + SOLO]

No more people to hold me down, fight the ghost in my home town
All the walls will crumble down

And sail away, we may not ever be coming back this way
Sail away, another place to be, another day
[REPEAT 2x]

You got to sail away, come on and sail away
Sailin' yeah, you've got to sail away, sailin' yeah, come on and sail away
[REPEAT 2x]
