

1. In a family, the father is always the breadwinner.
2. Nowadays, women also work to make money, just like men.
3. Housekeeping is the job of both the wife and the husband.
4. The husband's role should include sharing household chores with his wife.
5. The wife's role is to manage her home and take care of every family member.
6. To support the family and to make every member happy are the important reasons for husbands and wives to work together.