

Drag the correct command and fit in the red shaded area

1. The following script should display the input to the program

2. Complete the following script

3. The sprite has four different pictures, the completed script should show all the four pictures or costumes of the sprite. Fit the correct command to complete the program.

4. The following script on pressing the down arrow, the sprite should move downwards. Which command completes the program?

5. The following script is incomplete, which command can make the sprite to go 10 steps to the right? Drag and fit this command in the script.

