

About how many blood donations are needed every day in the United States?

14,000

24,000

40,000

Approximately _____ people donate blood every year.

9,200,000

92,000

920,000

According to the announcement, some people do not donate blood because _____.

It isn't always convenient to schedule a time

They are afraid of the process

They are concerned about their privacy

Which step for donating blood was NOT mentioned in the recording?

Reviewing your medical history

Signing up for a time

Eating food before you donate

You can donate blood every _____ days.

66

76

56