

My family likes _____

It's a tradition in our family to go fishing once a _____

We really like spending our free time in _____

We get to the lake in the _____ coming early in the morning so that we can admire the _____

We love

.When one of us catches the first fish, we _____ at one another. We call it the _____ catches fish.

wink. After that each of us always Sometimes we organize fishing competitions. Last time I was the winner. I caught the biggest _____

. My mother said that I was a great fisherman. My brother was a little jealous at first. Then he told me I had done a great job. What I love most about our family is that we always _____ one another.

Fishing is a possibility to be _____ the beauty of nature.

and admire

There is something that bothers us. All the time we get there we find a lot of

_____ . We always _____ the place. But every time we get back there we find it _____ makes me very _____

This

