

My family likes _____.

go fishing once a _____.

time in _____.

We get to the lake in the _____.

coming early in the morning so that we can admire the _____.

When one of us catches the first fish, we _____ at one another. We call it the _____ wink. After that each of us always catches fish.

Sometimes we organize fishing competitions. Last time I was the winner. I caught the biggest _____. My mother said that I was a great fisherman. My brother was a little jealous at first. Then he told me I had done a great job. What I love most about our family is that we always _____ one another.

Fishing is a possibility to be _____ and admire the beauty of nature.

There is something that bothers us. All the time we get there we find a lot of

_____ We always _____ the place. But every time we get back there we find it _____. This makes me very _____.

