

1. What is the main focus of the passage?

- a. The history of television
- b. The impact of TV shows on society
- c. The rise of streaming platforms
- d. The influence of TV on children

2. According to the passage, how can TV shows influence the behavior of teenagers?

- a. By promoting positive values
- b. By glorifying negative actions
- c. By showcasing diverse cultures
- d. Both a and b

3. What role do characters in TV shows play in influencing young viewers?

- a. They have no impact on the audience.
- b. They serve as role models.
- c. They only provide entertainment.
- d. They discourage positive behavior.

4. How can TV shows contribute to cultural awareness and diversity?

- a. By avoiding diverse characters
- b. By showcasing various lifestyles and backgrounds
- c. By promoting stereotypes
- d. By limiting exposure to different cultures

5. According to the passage, what is a potential drawback of binge-watching?

- a. Increased cultural awareness
- b. Unhealthy screen time habits
- c. Positive impact on values
- d. Educational benefits

6. Which statement is true about educational TV shows mentioned in the passage?

- a. They are not beneficial for students.
- b. They contribute to cultural stereotypes.
- c. They focus solely on entertainment.
- d. They can increase knowledge on various subjects.

7. What is the significance of characters in TV shows becoming role models?

- a. It has no impact on young viewers.
- b. It influences the decisions of teenagers.
- c. It encourages negative behavior.
- d. It limits cultural awareness.

8. How has the rise of streaming platforms changed TV consumption?

- a. It has decreased overall viewership.
- b. It has made TV shows less accessible.
- c. It has revolutionized the way people watch TV.
- d. It has eliminated the need for educational content.

9. According to the passage, what is the potential impact of TV shows on stereotypes?

- a. They reinforce stereotypes.
- b. They have no influence on stereotypes.
- c. They actively challenge stereotypes.
- d. They only showcase stereotypes from specific cultures.

10. What advice does the passage offer regarding students and their TV-watching habits?

- a. Students should avoid watching TV altogether.
- b. Students should prioritize binge-watching.
- c. Students should find a healthy balance between entertainment and other activities.
- d. Students should only watch educational TV shows.