_____  is very important in people's lives. People socialize to make _____ , learn new things and share _____ .

Many people usually say that they don't follow any rules when communicating. But this is false. Think about how you talk to your _____ , your friends, your _____ , or an unfamiliar person. You talk differently in these situations.

The way people talk depends on the situation. However, all of them start their communication by saying _____  . So this is the first rule they follow. They are also polite, and this is another rule they follow. If they are not polite, people will not want to talk to _____ .Finally, people should not say what they think is false. We should also remember that communication is _____ . When people talk they cooperate with one another.They exchange _____  ,_____ , thoughts, and _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS