

READ THE TEXT AND ANSWER QUESTIONS

What is one way we can reduce our carbon footprint?

- A) Conserving water
  - B) Using non-renewable energy sources
  - C) Increasing waste production
  - D) Using more single-use plastic items
  - E) Hunting endangered species
-

What is the biggest threat to the environment?

- A) Water pollution
  - B) Climate change
  - C) Habitat destruction
  - D) Deforestation
  - E) Air pollution
-

Which of the following is NOT a renewable energy source?

- A) Nuclear power
  - B) Hydroelectric power
  - C) Wind power
  - D) Geothermal power
  - E) Solar power
-

How can we protect endangered species?

- A) Promote illegal poaching
  - B) Encourage habitat destruction
  - C) Increase hunting activities
  - D) Ignore their existence
  - E) Reduce habitat destruction
-

What is the relationship between economic growth and environmental sustainability?

- A) Economic growth is irrelevant to environmental sustainability.
  - B) Environmental sustainability is more important than economic growth
  - C) They are mutually exclusive
  - D) Economic growth can only be achieved by harming the environment
  - E) They can coexist if we maintain a balance between them
-