

Listen to the Dialogue and Fill in the Spaces.

What are you _____-ing, my son?

I'm _____-ing a sandwich. Do you want me to _____ one for you?

Did you finish _____-ing your chores? Remember, you _____ me very happy when you _____ good things.

Yes, I _____(past) the bed and I _____(past) my homework. I need to _____ some exercises before bed.

I'm so proud of you; I could _____ a speech to all the neighbours.

Dad, don't _____ that. You will _____ me feel embarrassed. I promise I will _____ any more work that you want.

Ok, I won't _____ it. But remember, good workers _____ a good impression with the girls!

Put the Correct Word (Make or Do) in the Space.

_____ a difference. _____ me sad. _____ a phone call. _____ business.

_____ a deal. _____ things up. _____ a great speech. _____ good.

_____ the right thing. _____ something important. _____ a salad.

_____ your homework. _____ me a favor. _____ a good job.

_____ the bed. _____ harm to the environment.

_____ a proposal. _____ evil. _____ a mess.

Write make or do

Just it. I'm going to my exercises

Let's a sandwich for lunch. Did you it to the finish line?

Remember to a good impression on your first day.