

UNIT 9, LESSON 1 QUESTIONS WITH HOW MUCH AND HOW MANY

A ▶ Listen to the questions. Check the words you hear: how much + non-count noun or how many + plural noun.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
How much + non-count noun
How many + plural noun	✓

B Complete the conversations. Write how, how much, or how many.

1. Jacie: Can you pick up milk?
Hannah: Sure. How much milk should I get? And what kind?
2. Alice: I invited some people for pizza. Will you pick it up?
Brian: Okay. Who's coming? How many people will there be?
Alice: Five. Mark, his two sisters, and us.
Brian: So, how many pizzas will we need?
Brian: They're pretty big—about 14 inches.
Alice: Then three pizzas, I think.
3. Mary: Can you get the pies and put them in the car?
Don: How many pies did you make?
Mary: Two—cherry and blueberry. How much ice cream should we buy?
Don: A lot.

C Nancy is at the supermarket. Look at the shopping list her sister wrote. Nancy is calling her sister to ask some questions. Complete her questions. Use how much or how many and the words in parentheses.

1. How many apples should I buy?
(I / should / buy)
2. How much rice should I buy?
(you / want)
3. How much salt should I buy?
(we / need)
4. How much sugar should I buy?
(we / have)
5. How much peppers should I buy?
(I / should / get)
6. How much coffee should I buy?
(we / need)
7. How many juice should I buy?
(you / want)
8. How many cookies should I buy?
(I / should / buy)
9. How many bread should I buy?
(you / want)

1. apples
2. rice
3. salt
4. sugar
5. peppers
6. coffee
7. juice
8. cookies
9. bread