

1) Match the phrase with the definition:

ENTER THE CHARTS

When a group of musicians perform*

START A BAND

To travel and perform on many different places*

RELEASE A SINGLE

To bring a group of musicians to play together*

GO ON TOUR

To get into the lists of music with the highest sales*

PLAY A GIG

To make a song available for people to buy*

2) Complete with the correct phrase:

started a band
wrote / songs
recorded / single download played gigs
enter the charts
released
went on / tour

When Mick Jagger ⁰ started a band called The Rolling Stones in 1962 with a few friends, he had no idea how successful they would become. The Stones ¹ _____ their first _____, Come On, a song by the singer Chuck Berry, and ² _____ it on 7 June, 1963. They never performed it when they ³ _____ because it wasn't 'their' song. But their fans found out about the record, and so many people bought it that it ⁴ _____ in the UK and went to number 21. Of course, in those days, fans had to go to record shops; they couldn't just ⁵ _____ music from the Internet! Mick Jagger and Keith Richards ⁶ _____ a lot of _____ that became very famous. In 1964, The Rolling Stones ⁷ _____ their first _____ of the US. When they came back, they had their first number one hit in the UK, It's All Over Now.