

LISTEN TO THE AUDIO IN THE GROUP CHAT AND COMPLETE THE INTERVIEW.

Presenter: Welcome to What's On. Today's program is about how [redacted] had fun in the past and how they do now. Julia, you're now a [redacted]. Can you think back to when you were a teenager? What did you [redacted] do in your spare time?

Julia: In the [redacted], when I was a teenager I used to [redacted] my friends for hours and hours.

Presenter: Did you use to talk on the [redacted]?

Julia: Of course not! We didn't use to have telephones at [redacted] so I used to visit my friends or [redacted] they visited me. We used to play [redacted]. We also collected things – I used to collect [redacted] for example.

Presenter: Where did you use to go [redacted]?

Julia: We loved going to [redacted]. Boys used to ride bikes to the park and girls used to take food to have [redacted] there.

Presenter: And what about the younger [redacted]? Tommy, you are 15. How do teenagers [redacted] these days?

Tommy: We also have lots of [redacted]. Most teenagers have a [redacted] now, and we use it to text our friends and chat with them [redacted]. Also, I listen to music on mine, and I love [redacted] too. I take hundreds every day!

Presenter: That's interesting Tommy. But do you ever actually [redacted] your friends in person?

Tommy: Of course! We often go to [redacted] at the weekend. Also, I love [redacted] with my friends.
