Question 10-14
Read the passage then answer the questions by circling a, b or c.

The Lion and the Mouse

A big lion was sleeping in the forest, and a tiny mouse accidentally ran over his nose. The lion woke up and got angry, wanting to catch and kill the mouse. The mouse begged for mercy, promising to help the lion someday.

The lion found it funny that such a small mouse could be of any help but decided to let it go. Later, the lion got stuck in a hunter's net, and he roared loudly. The mouse, recognizing the lion's voice, came to help. The mouse chewed through the net's ropes until they broke, freeing the lion.

The mouse told the lion, "Remember when I promised to help you? Now you see, even a small mouse can be helpful to a big lion." This story teaches us that being kind and helpful to others is always a good thing.
