

IDIOMS/ PROVERBS CORNER

Read the sentences from the first podcast. Choose the correct answer.

Which option has the similar meaning?

1. I'm not an expert at this topic by a long shot.
 - a. I'm not one of the best experts at this topic.
 - b. I'm not an expert at this topic at all/ in any way.
2. Young people know a lot about cutting-edge technology.
 - a. Young people know a lot about the latest developments in technology.
 - b. Young people know a lot about the advantages of technology.

PRONUNCIATION

- A. Listen to the sentence from the first podcast. Pay attention to the pronunciation of the words in bold. Then practise saying the sentence. (Audio 8.3)

I've watched a documentary which is about technology and use of social media.

- B. The following words are from the podcasts. Listen and repeat. (Audio 8.4)

with	away	will	week	we	view
waste	way	when	know	news	World Wide Web

- C. Listen to the following sentences. Pay attention to the difference in the /v/ and /w/ sounds. (Audio 8.5)

/v/	/w/
My mother is very patient.	Tourists should be wary of pickpockets.
A vet loves animals.	I got wet in the rain.
He puts on a thermal vest in winter.	The sun sets in the west .
The gas left the box through the vent .	Susan went to the airport by taxi.
My aunt makes this soup with veal .	A bike has two wheels .
I know the first verse of this song.	My cold got worse last night.

- D. Listen again and then practise saying the sentences.