Grammar in context 1

Modal verbs of obligation, prohibition, advice and permission

1 ☆ Choose the correct alternative.

1 You mustn't/ought to cheat. It isn't fair on other students.

2 He shouldn't/'d better check the website before he pays for the course.

3 In some secondary schools, you should/can use your phone at break time.

4 Nap stations are free for students. You don't have to/can't pay.

5 You should/don't have to try our school lunches. They're delicious!

6 In official exams, you must/should turn off your mobile phone.

LIVEWORKSHEETS