

Conjunctions

We can use and and but to join two short sentences to make one longer sentence.

The conjunction and joins sentences with similar ideas.

My sister had a birthday.
She got a new bike.
My sister had a birthday and she got a new bike.

The conjunction but joins sentences with different ideas.

My aunt lives far away.
She calls me often.
My aunt lives far away but she calls me often.

Use and or but to complete each sentence.

- 1) Janey _____ her friend Amelia rode their bikes to the park.
- 2) The taxi driver wanted to turn right, _____ had to turn left instead.
- 3) The teacher wanted the students to do both maths _____ science homework.
- 4) Mark let his friends play with his bike, _____ not his basketball.
- 5) The school marching band practiced hard _____ they still did not sound very good.
- 6) The boy and his father go camping _____ fishing every Easter.
- 7) The race car rounded the track for the last lap _____ ran out of gas before it made it to the finish line.
- 8) The book was over 400 pages long _____ I read the whole thing.
- 9) Sarah wants to drive to work _____ her car won't start.
- 10) The policeman catches criminals _____ keeps everyone safe.