

TENSES: WRITE THE VERB IN THE CORRECT FORM

Jack, who is my friend, (live) in Buenos Aires but when he was a child, he (not live) there, he (live) with his parents in Italy. Therefore, he can (speak) not only Spanish but also Italian. He (not miss) Italy because he likes Argentina's weather. Jack (work) in a hospital. He loves his job but he (not have) much free time. On weekdays Jack (not work). He (play) sports. He always (play) football or tennis with his friends but he never (play) hockey because he (not like) it. His friends (not be) good players but they love (play) although they (not win). At the moment, Jack (work) at the hospital. He (talk) with his boss. They (do) important things tomorrow.

Tomorrow Tom (not work) because he (celebrate) his mother's birthday. So tomorrow at 10 pm he (dance) with his family. One night Jack (write) something from his job. He (be) busy. It was 12pm and he (write) while he (drink) a coffee. He (realize) it was too late so he (go) to sleep. He (not finish) his work that night. He (do) it the following day