

Revise your grammar « Different families, same love »

1. HAVE/ HAVE GOT (positive or negative) – Choose the correct verb.

We two cars : a red one and a black one.

Sometimes, my teachers a lot of patience with me !

My sister a boyfriend but I don't like him.

We a long summer holiday.

My family adorable neighbours. They kids who are the same age.

I a mobile phone.

My best friend an exam tomorrow.

You a girlfriend.

2. IS / HE'S / HIS – Drag and drop the correct tag.

.he's. .he's. .he... .is...

.his... .his... .his...

This Ding. 12 years old. And this is father. They are from China but now they live in England. is bilingual : he speaks Chinese and English. He and father love football. Ding loves watching games. favourite team is Manchester United but a big fan of Barcelona, too.

3. MY/ YOUR/ HIS/ HER – Complete with the correct possessive.

I have got a cousin. name is Joe.

My favourite actress is Emma Watson. I love films.

..... family is very small. I haven't got a brother or a sister.

Are you American ? I like accent.

Give me rubber please. I haven't got pencil case.