

Word Form Exercise with Latinate Forms

- Fill in the chart with each form of the words in the Noun column.

| Noun           | Verb   | Adjective   |
|----------------|--------|-------------|
| information    | inform | Informative |
| communication  |        |             |
| presentation   |        |             |
| exploration    |        |             |
| evaluation     |        |             |
| transformation |        |             |
| observation    |        |             |
| donation       |        |             |
| application    |        |             |
| inspiration    |        |             |

- Fill in the blanks with the correct word and word form.

information      communication      application      exploration      presentation transformation      evaluation      observation      inspiration      donation

When deciding whether to _____ to a charity or not it's important to _____ how effective or important the non-government organization (NGO) is. For example, how does the NGO spend the money and who benefits from your donation? If you're really interested in donating to a particular organization, it is important that you maintain _____ with them by email or a good-old-fashioned phone call. You should gather _____ about the group and apply that knowledge to better understand the NGO's goals and methods. Take notes about any outstanding achievements you _____ and _____ further to discover as much as you can. Once you've decided which NGO to contribute to, it can be a _____ experience. Many people who first start to donate money often feel _____ by the work and later _____ to join the NGO. This decision process _____ a life-changing experience for many people and helps broaden their worldviews.

3. Match the adjectives on the left with the definitions on the right.

- |                   |   |
|-------------------|---|
| 1. Presentational | a. providing exciting new ideas; making somebody want to create something, especially in art, literature or music                           |
| 2. Applicative    | b. relating to or involving the application of a subject or idea; practical or applied.   |
| 3. Celebratory    | c. connected with or based on the activity of watching somebody/something carefully for a period of time, especially to learn something     |
| 4. Evaluative     | d. to judge or calculate the quality, importance, amount, or value of something   |
| 5. Informative    | e. connected with the act of showing, explaining or offering something to other people, especially a new product, a policy or a performance |
| 6. Inspirational  | f. providing a lot of useful information  |
| 7. Observational  | g. relating to communication  |
| 8. Transformative | h. causing a major change to something or someone, especially in a way that makes it or them better   |
| 9. Exploratory    | i. celebrating something or marking a special occasion  |
| 10. Communicative | j. done in order to discover more about something   |

4. Correct the following sentences so that the verb form is the correct adjective form:

- a. The documentary about coral reefs was very inform.
- b. The scientists used explore methods to discover information.
- c. You should use your observe skill to learn more about word forms.
- d. I hope this task was transform for your knowledge of English.

5. Choose 2 words from the table in #1. Write one sentence for each word form, using the form correctly.