

Futures 3

will, going to and present continuous

You are staying with a friend. During your stay she asks you some questions. Complete your replies to her by choosing the most appropriate ending for your sentence.

What your friend says:

What you say:

Example:

Can I borrow your bike?	Sorry but...	a) I'll be sick.
1 Would you like to come to a party this Thursday?	Well, thanks, but actually ...	b) I'm going to visit her.
2 Do you know where you're going next?	Yes, I've already got my ticket and ...	c) I'm going to answer it soon.
3 Do you know that Paul's in hospital? Seems he gets very few visitors.	No, I didn't know. In that case ...	d) I'll go to Rome.
4 There's a great film on at the Plaza, you know?	Oh really? In that case ...	e) I'll get it.
5 Hey! Want to try some octopus?	Yuk! No thanks, if I try that ...	f) I'm flying to Rome next week.
6 You look ill. Do you feel OK?	Not really, in fact I think ...	g) I'm just going to use it.
7 Where are you going for your next holiday?	I haven't really decided yet, but it's possible ...	h) I think I'll visit him tomorrow.
8 Are you going out tomorrow night?	Yes, in fact I must let Anna know ...	i) I'm going to be sick.
9 Phone's ringing!	Right ...	j) I think Pete's having one too.
10 Phil asked if you'd received his letter.	Yes, I've been thinking about that letter. So tell him ...	k) I think I'll see it tonight.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10