72 What's what? sentences, fragments, and run-on sentences

Activity

Five sentences (S), five fragments (F), and five run-on sentences (ROS) are found in these fifteen groups of words. Write the appropriate code letter(s) on the line next to the group of words.

1. _____ Have you already visited that famous London museum?
2. _____ At the beginning of the movie.
3. _____ Let's open the presents, we want to see what you have been given.
4. _____ Last year we photographed some of the events.
5. _____ Again after all of the applause.
6. _____ Before they started their photography business.
7. _____ Please handle these expensive vases with care.
8. _____ The men fixing the heater need more time, they can bill us more if they need to do so.
9. _____ During the celebration held at the plaza.
10. _____ Bring the empty cartons back from the factory they can be used again.
11. _____ While you dial Molly's number, the rest of us can continue to set the table.
12. _____ There are too many people in this elevator, who can take another one so this one is not so crowded?
13. _____ Several telephone operators tried to assist me finally I gave up.
14. _____ Leaving through the back door in the middle of the night last August.
15. _____ We would really like to accept your invitation.

LIVEWORKSHEETS