5 Read the text and complete gaps 1–10. Circle the correct answer

I'm going to talk about the importance of spending more money on music in schools. 1____, I'm going to talk about the role of music in schools. 2____, I'm going to discuss how playing a musical instrument is good for your brain development. 3____, I'm going to talk about how playing a musical instrument helps you to do better at school and why schools should therefore pay for all students to learn an instrument. Then I'm going to 4____ up the main points before taking questions. I'd like to 5____ by saying that people generally don't think music is an important subject. The 6____ I say that is because music is not a main subject in most schools in the UK. Most children who sing or play a musical instrument do this in extracurricular clubs at the end of the school day. Parents pay for these classes and they are expensive. 7____ of all, we need to ask ourselves, is music a subject that should just be a choice for students with rich parents? Or should it be compulsory in every school, as I believe it should, with schools paying for instruments for students to practise on? I'll 8____ you why I think that. Many studies show us that musical children get better scores in subjects like maths. This 9____ to my next point about music and the brain. If you play an instrument, it helps your brain development. There are a number of reasons why I 10____ this. First, ...
