

Indefinite pronoun exercise

Complete the sentences with available indefinite pronoun here

Everybody / everything / anyone / anything / nobody / nothing

Example: There were lots of events going on at the same time, but everything was very well organized.

1. The opening ceremony was brilliant. I've never seen _____ like
2. It was a fantastic event _____ was really happy to be there.
3. We all got tickets, so _____ was disappointed.
4. A lot of people bought souvenirs like desserts and baseball caps. At the end of the evening there was _____ left.
5. I was amazed that _____ could go so fast in a wheelchair.

Choose the correct word in each sentence

1. Everybody / anybody talking about the next Olympic Games
2. It is OK, there's nothing / anything to worry about.
3. I didn't see nothing / anything.
4. Can I do anything / everything to help? New line it is so boring. There's anything / nothing to do.
5. I didn't know nobody / anybody at the party.
6. Jamil is very friendly. Everyone / anyone likes him
7. Anubody / nobody like getting up early.

Complete the sentences with anyone anything nothing or no one.

1. Does _____ want the last potato?
2. "What do you want for dinner? _____ as long as it is quick
3. I knocked out at the door a few times but _____ answer.
4. I can't find _____ to wear.
5. I'm afraid there is _____ i can do to help you.
6. "What shall we play?" _____ I really don't mind.

Complete the conversation

Arie : Is there anything on TV?

Bian : What do you want to watch?

Arie : _____ I don't mind.

Bian : _____ it's talking about the new sports quiz.

Arie : Really? I don't know _____ who's watched it.

Bian : Don't you remember? Alex said it was really good.

Arie : Well, I don't know _____ about sport. You are the expert.

You know _____ about this _____ knows as much as you.

Bian : The questions are difficult _can answer them.

Arie : Well, not me. I know _____ about sports.

Bian : Let's watch it anyway and I'll answer all the questions.