

"Help me build the largest sand castle in the world!" Stan said to Polly.

"Ok," Polly said, "I've always wanted to build the largest sand castle!"

"We can build it all the way to the moon!" Stan exclaimed.

"Well, I don't know about to the moon, but we can build it as high as us!" Polly replied.

"I like building things," Stan said.

"I just like playing in the sand," Polly said.
