KEEP AS PHRASAL VERB

Keep in (no allow someone out)

Keep from (to not do)

Keep Down (no vomit)

Keep Away from (avoid someone or something)

Keep around (something/someone near)

Keep on (to continue)

Use KEEP as a phrasal verb base on the sentences context.

She wins always playingvideo games online , she can't keep away from it .

I Keep a dictionary around when reading Spanish books.

They are always in trouble , So I just keep away from bad behavior students.

She kept on talking after I told her to be quiet.

Basil leaves helps to keep away flies and mosquitoes.

Because of my accident at Joe's birthdqay party. I keep away from clubs.

I could not keep it down after getting off the roller coaster.

Carl keeps away from the garden. He has a lot of allergies.

It has been snowing since yesterday. That is why we will keep ourselves in today.

Use KEEP as a phrasal verb base on the sentences context.

Susan keeps her asma pills around when she travels abroad.

Astronauts keep themselves in spacecraft in summer.

Let´s keep it in the backyard and give it a doghouse?

If you go climbing keep your water bottle and lantern around.

If you are looking for an scholarship you should keep on getting Good grades.

Policemen suggested keeping ourselves in until they find the thieves.

The next-door Neighbor does not like Dogs. You must keep your dog away from his house.

The rain kept on throughout the day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS