

LISTENING PRACTICE – PART 4

PRACTICE 3

You will listen to a job interview for a post in an HR Department in a prestigious company.

For questions 21 to 30, fill in the missing information in each numbered space.
Use NO MORE THAN ONE WORD for each space.

You will hear the interview twice. Answer all the questions.

Maria has applied for a post in the HR department. Her 21. _____ and experience perfectly fit with the requirements needed by the company. Previously, she worked for a small HR services provider for the past four years, including L&D, to corporate clients. Currently, she decided to transform her job scope to a 22. _____ organisation thus she chose to join a 23. _____ with around one hundred staff and a small HR team. In her opinion, larger organisation will provide her the scope to specialise in L&D. She has been keeping up the track of the company's 24. _____ and are fully aligned with its image and 25. _____. Besides that, not having any experience would be one of the main challenges of working in a company with large number of people. Maria is extremely concern into taking a very 26. _____ approach to employee development. Approaching 2000 27. _____ members will definitely have to happen in a different way but having various 28. _____ in her mind can be replicated on a larger scale. Upon selection, Maria must 29. _____ to the HR Manager and then deal with an HR team with six people where an intern or two will be there as her assistant(s). Her role to devise and successfully implement the learning and development needs strategy would be the step that will 30. _____ her performance and success in the company.

JPN PERAK