

Name: _____ Date: _____

Reading Comprehension

Inferences – an inference is when we take clues from a story plus our knowledge and experiences to decide what the author means.

Charlie's Fish and Other Tales

1. When did Charlie head for the river bend?

-
2. Write the numbers 1 to 4 in front of the sentences to show the order of events.

_____ Charlie tried to land the giant fish.

_____ Charlie woke up by the sound of waves crashing.

_____ Charlie tied his fishing line to the horse team.

_____ Charlie waited for three days.

3. Put an X next to the event that happened first.

_____ a. The cod lay on the river bank

_____ b. The level of the river dropped.

_____ c. Charlie unpacked his car.

4. Charlie caught a fish on the second day he went fishing. Write true or false on the line. _____

5. It took Charlie two days to get the fish out of the water. Write true or false on the line. _____

6. Put an X next to the words that tell you when Charlie finally caught his fish.

_____ a. just as the sun is rising

_____ b. early hours of the morning

_____ c. at sunset

7. How many day total did Charlie spend catching his fish? More than _____ days.