

WOMEN IN WAR TIME: website

What was the women's land army during WWII?

- ☐ women producing clothes
- ☐ women gardening
- ☐ women producing food

Why did women take part in agriculture?

- ☐ men didn't feel like cultivating
- ☐ men had to leave the fields to join the Army
- ☐ women were more efficient than men

1917	•	• more than 80.000 land girls
1939	•	• date of creation of the WLA
1941	•	• reopening of the WLA
1944	•	• conscription appeared

Right or Wrong

Land girls had decent living conditions (privacy, comfort)

In 1941, about 7,000 women in the WLA lived in London

In 1944, WLA stopped

There were pests like moles or rats that destroyed farm work.

There were only British girls.

Women and men were not equal. Men earned more money than women

Land girls only worked as farmers in the fields

Right
Wrong	