

4. Change each statement into a question. Use the question words.

1. My brother is going to play on the soccer team next year. (Who)

Who is going to play on the soccer team next year?

2. Taylor and Greta are going to be in London. (How long)

3. Joseph is going to come to the party. (When)

4. Nick and Lance are going to meet at the mall. (What day)

5. Her grandparents are going to sell their house. (Why)

6. Beth is going to wear the new soccer uniform tomorrow. (Who)

5. Look at the diagram of the school. A new student is asking for directions. Complete the conversations.

1. A: How do I get to the main office?

B: It's on the first floor, across from the gym.

2. A: How do I get to the library?

B: _____ to the second floor. _____
the hall. It's on _____.

3. A: How do I get to the science lab?

B: _____ to the third floor. Go down
_____. It's on _____, across from _____.

4. A: How do I get to the gym?

B: It's across from _____, between Room 102 and _____.

5. A: How do I get to Room 305?

B: Take the stairs to _____. It's across from _____.

6. A: How do I get to Room 202?

B: Go upstairs to _____. Turn _____ and go down _____. It's across from _____.

7. A: How do I get to the computer lab?

B: Take the stairs to _____. It's across from _____,
between Room 306 and _____.

8. A: How do I get to the cafeteria?

B: Oh, that's easy. The cafeteria is also on _____.
It's next to _____, across from _____.

