

Forming the past tense of to be.

Affirmative and negative sentence

I	was
He	was not
She	wasn't
It		at home	yesterday.
You	were		last week.
We	were not
They	weren't

Interrogative sentence

Was	I
	he she
	it	at home	yesterday?
Were	you
	we they

1. Fill in the gaps with was or were, wasn't or weren't.

1. He a good student.
2. Mom at the bank yesterday.
3. Peter and David tired last night.
4. The cat in the garden. (neg)
5. We at the church yesterday.
6. Mary sick last week?
7. My aunt Lucy at the shopping mall last night.
8. My brother at work yesterday. (neg)
9. you sleepy in class yesterday?
10. My family in La Ceiba last Summer.
11. They at school yesterday.
12. Sara at the supermarket yesterday afternoon. (neg)
13. I at the beach last week.
14. My sister born in April.
15. The pencils on the table.

2. Rewrite the sentences below by changing the verb to be into the past simple (was / were).

1. I am exhausted.

.....

2. Everything is all right.

.....

3. Betty is on the sofa.

.....

4. Mary is a baby.

.....

5. You are in Guatemala.

.....

6. The door is open.

.....

7. This is my house.

.....

8. We are good students.

.....

9. Genesis and Martha are at school.

.....

10. They are my teachers.

.....