

Present Perfect simple – exercise

I. Affirmative

Choose the correct option.

David _____ a lot of money in the shopping mall.

His mother _____ in the biggest bank in the city.

I _____ my family in Italy.

Tom _____ to New York.

I _____ Chinese.

I _____ the report.

Mary _____ the dishes.

She _____ her lost keys.

They _____ their homework.

We _____ in this house for ten years.

They _____ all their friends to the wedding.

The postman _____ all the mail.

I _____ him before.

She _____ her finger.

He _____ his leg.

II. Negative

Choose the correct sentence.

I hasn't been to Italy.

I haven't been to Italy.

They haven't visited Paris yet.

They haven't never visited Paris yet.

She have not missed the buss.

She hasn't missed the bus.

ENGLISH

We haven't lived here since 2010.

We hasn't lived here since 2010.

I haven't eaten sushi.

I haven't ate sushi.

She hasn't spoke to him for years.

She hasn't spoken to him for three years.

I haven't never read that book.

I have never read that book.

He hasn't heard this song before.

He hasn't hear this song before.

We haven't enjoy our vacation.

We haven't enjoyed our vacation.

The student hasn't done the test yet.

The student hasn't did the test yet.

III. Questions and short answers.

Put the verbs in brackets in Present Perfect tense to write questions and their short answers.

_____ (she, ever, be) to a Chinese restaurant?

Yes, she _____.

_____ (you, ever, work) as a journalist?

No, I _____.

_____ (he, ever, see) a fox?

No, he _____.

ENGLISH

_____ (you, do) the shopping?

Yes, I _____.

_____ (they, have) a pet.

No, they _____.

_____ (she, answer) your letter?

No, she _____.

_____ (you, ride) a horse?

No, I _____.

_____ (your father, win) a lottery?

Yes, he _____.

_____ (your sister, swim) in the ocean?

Yes, she _____.

_____ (you, meet) a famous person?

Yes, we _____.