

Questions 21 to 30

You will hear an actor talking about his profession. For questions 21 to 30, fill in the missing information in each numbered space.

Use NO MORE THAN ONE WORD for each space.

You will hear the interview twice. Answer all the questions.

Being an Actor: What's It Like?

Being an actor is both exciting and rewarding. An actor greatly benefits from the opportunity to work with different crew members on a project such as the (21) _____, producer, supporting cast and many more. Usually, the crew will first find the right (22) _____ to shoot the film. Then, the team working on sounds and visuals will come onboard to start work, along with the actors who are now filming their scenes.

However, despite the glamour and fame it promises, actors must work hard - sometimes spending close to (23) _____ hours for filming every day due to the long and (24) _____ schedule. Therefore, it is important for actors to feel comfortable to work for an extended time with the cast and crew members. To achieve this, everyone involved must respect each other's (25) _____ and behave appropriately.

Being critical of their own (26) _____ helps actors to improve themselves, but some choose to avoid it as they believe it can affect their future performances. When they are not filming, actors occupy themselves with different activities. Some will take the opportunity to (27) _____ other interests, while others will simply take a break and rest. Those who are keen on giving back usually engage themselves in (28) _____ work. If you want to become a better actor, you can attend classes or hire a (29) _____ to improve your acting skills. You can also use your phone to record and (30) _____ your acting. This will enable you to study your expressions and be more aware of the image you are trying to project.