Exercise 2.

This is a (1) of my family. As you can see, we're quite a big family. This is my dad. His name's John and (2) him on the right is my mum. Her name is Sally. (3) them is my Auntie Jill. We're really close. We often do things (4) She's great fun to be with. Next to Auntie Jill is my uncle, Tom. He's a teacher and very (5) to talk to. He knows a lot about football. At the back of the photo, on the left, are my grandparents. My grandma is 65 and my grandpa's over 70, but very (6) We often go for long walks together and they're both good tennis (7) I've got two brothers and a sister. That's Fabian, Hamish and Rachel. They're (8) at the front with Alan. He's my cousin from America. He's a student at (9) in England this year. And look, at the back of the photo on the right is my (10), Antonia, with her husband, James. She's really nice and very (11)

Exercise 3.

Samir: Hi, Amanda. Is now a good time to (1) me your photos from the summer or are you (2)

Amanda: I'm working, but I'm happy to (3) for ten or fifteen minutes. Would you like a coffee?

Samir: Yes, a coffee would be great.

Amanda: OK. Let me show you the photos, then. This is a photo of me and my brothers and sisters. We're on the (4)

Samir: Wow, there are seven of you! You're a really big family.

Amanda: Yes, I've got three sisters and three brothers. My oldest sister is 32 and my two (5) brothers are 8. No, sorry, they're 9 now.

Samir: Are they (6)

Amanda: Yes, that's right.

Samir: And how old is your other brother?

Amanda: He's the same age as me. James and I are twins as well! We're both (7) this year.

Samir: Really!

Amanda: This is a photo of my dad with his (8) brother, my Uncle Tom. Uncle Tom's just got married and that's his new wife, Maria.

Samir: Is she English?

Amanda: No, she isn't. She's (9)

Samir: Yes, she looks Italian or Spanish with her (10) hair.

Amanda: This is another photo of my dad.

Samir: And who are the four children?

Amanda: They're my dad's four (11)

Samir: Are they all boys?

Amanda: No, they aren't. He's got one grandson and three granddaughters.
