

Put the verb in brackets into CORRECT Infinitive or the Ing-form.

1. Did you notice the little boy _____ (take) the candy and _____ (run) away?
2. _____ (Hear) about Mike's problem, Susan wrote a letter to him.
3. George is in hospital. He feels really bad. He has to give up _____ (smoke) and _____ (drink) too much beer.
4. Would you mind _____ (bring) some water from the kitchen? I'm thirsty.
5. Turn on the radio. I want _____ (listen) to the news.
6. This victory of yours is really great! It's worth _____ (celebrate).
7. – How do you feel if someone interrupts you? – I hate _____ (interrupt).
8. Please, try _____ (be) quiet, everyone is sleeping.
9. I have never heard him _____ (speak) French.
10. Everyone in Kolomna enjoys _____ (listen) to Anna Chevtaeva _____ (sing). She's got a really great voice!
11. Nobody expected Roman _____ (marry) Mary.
12. Ernest Hemingway was fond of _____ (read) books.
13. I specially came _____ (tell) you that our trip to Berkhino has been cancelled.
14. I am sorry, I can't _____ (go) with you right now. After _____ (finish) my work I'll join you with pleasure.
15. Instead of _____ (wait) for Olga at home, Mike decided _____ (meet) her in the street.
16. Anna knows English really well. I like her _____ (speak) English so fluently.
17. I am thankful for your _____ (come) in time.
18. I remember _____ (meet) you near the park with your heavy suitcase. I was really glad _____ (help) you _____ (carry) it to your house.
19. – I saw Varya _____ (leave) the school and _____ (go) home half an hour ago. It's a pity, because I wanted _____ (give) her the book by Cervantes. – Don't worry, I hope _____ (see) her this evening I can _____ (give) it to her..
20. We are really glad _____ (see) you today. We expected you _____ (arrive) only tomorrow.

