

GRAMMAR

Modal verbs: must, have to, should, ought to

Obligation and prohibition

You must be careful.

Do we have to sleep on the boat?

You mustn't do anything silly.

Advice

You should bring a torch.

You ought to buy some mosquito spray.

You shouldn't forget your swimsuit.

Lack of obligation

You don't have to be awake at night for two hours.

1 Order the words to make sentences.

- 1 must / wear / life jacket / you / a / .

You must wear a life jacket.

- 2 don't / we / pay / parking / have / for / to / .

- 3 use / ought / you / sun cream / to / .

- 4 work / have / dad / all / summer / does / to / your / ?

- 5 guidebook / should / a / buy / we / ?

- 6 lie / you / for / too long / shouldn't / in the sun / .

- 7 to / do / I / have / mosquito / bring / spray / ?

- 8 forget / to / you / mustn't / your / take / passport / .

3 ●● Complete the sentences with these verb forms. There are three extra verb forms.

don't have to pay must go mustn't pay ~~mustn't worry~~ must spend should drink shouldn't ask shouldn't spend will have to ask

- 1 You mustn't worry about anything – everything will be fine!
- 2 We've already paid for the hotel, so we _____ when we get there.
- 3 Madrid is a beautiful city – you really _____ there.
- 4 You _____ plenty of water when you're out in the sun all day.
- 5 I know I _____ so much money on holiday, but I just love shopping!
- 6 I'd love to go on a camping trip with you, but I _____ my parents first.

5 ●●● Complete the text with one modal verb in each gap. Do not use the same modal verb more than once.

Top tips for backpackers

First, you ¹ must make sure you have all the documents you need before you set off – that's really important. You ² _____ take sun cream if you are going somewhere hot. You ³ _____ have to phone your parents every day, but you ⁴ _____ to phone or email at least once a week, otherwise they'll get worried. You ⁵ _____ forget the date and time of your flight home. If you miss your flight, you will ⁶ _____ to pay for another one and it will probably be expensive!