Future Progressive

We use the future progressive tense to talk about something that will be happening at some point in the future. To form the future progressive tense, we use will be and the -ing form of the verb.

Examples

- I will be celebrating my birthday all day.
- They will be traveling to Europe next year.
- He will be hiking on Tuesday.

Write a verb ending in -ing under each time in the schedule below to share what you will be doing at that time tomorrow. You must use five different verbs.

Write a sentence using the future progressive tense to tell what you will be doing at each time. The first one has been done for you.
