

LONDON FOOTBALL TEAMS

London, the capital city of England, is home to several football teams that compete in various leagues. Here are three prominent football clubs based in London:

- 1. Arsenal FC: Arsenal, also known as the Gunners, was founded in 1886. The team plays its home matches at the Emirates Stadium. Arsenal has a rich history and is known for its attacking style of play. The club has won numerous domestic and international trophies.
- 2. Chelsea FC: Chelsea, founded in 1905, plays its home games at Stamford Bridge. The Blues have enjoyed considerable success in recent years, winning the English Premier League and the UEFA Champions League. Chelsea is known for its strong defense and skilled players.
- 3. Tottenham Hotspur FC: Tottenham Hotspur, or Spurs, was established in 1882. The team plays home matches at the Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. Spurs have a passionate fan base and a historic rivalry with Arsenal. They have had success in domestic competitions and in European tournaments.

London's football culture is vibrant, and matches involving these teams are highly anticipated. Whether you're cheering for the Gunners, the Blues, or Spurs, London offers a thrilling football experience for fans of all ages.

1. Name the three more important football teams in London

2. Where does Arsenal FC plays?

3. Write another way to name Chelsea FC.

4. Which team from London is Tottenham's rival?

5. Which team would you like to see? Why)

